From the children...	From the parents...
Must be fun to play with.            Help us tidy up when there is a mess.            Read stories to us in our Reading Garden.            Like playing outside all the time and have welly boots.            Play with our hair and paint our face and we can do it to you.            Have a happy face.            Cuddle us when we are sad.            Take us on trips on the big bus.            Help us get changed when we are messy.            Make pictures with us.            Dress up as princesses, pirates and everything else with us.            Ride around on the scooter.            Chase us in the garden and play hide and seek.            Give us breakfast and lunch and sit with us at tables.            Make us feel better if we are sad and give us cuddles.            Phone mummy if we are not feeling well and give us medicine if we are sick.	Have an obvious passion for spending time with children, and show lots of care and attention to our child's needs.            Be enthusiastic and friendly.            Have the ability to deal with problems in a calm manner.            Be happy, friendly and treat each child as an individual.            Get to know us as individuals and welcome us by our name.
